

Leading by Example: Words and Actions

God gives each one of us things in our lives about which we are passionate. Help your students realize and understand what it means to passions. Help them realize what they are passionate about.

Being a leader means living a life worthy of following. As a leader, do you lead by example? Leading by example means living out of your beliefs and backing up your words with actions. Does your life match up with what you say you believe? If you say you are a Christian, do you love like Jesus? Are you growing closer to Him each day? Leading by example also means having confidence in who you are in Christ, and being ready to give an answer when asked about the hope you have in Him. Can you explain your testimony, and why you believe what you believe?

Read James 1:19-27

How do actions speak louder than words? What positive and/or negative examples have you seen of this principle? _____

Is your faith evident in the way you live? In what ways? _____

Read Galatians 1 (Paul's testimony)

After reading this passage, how would you define a testimony? _____

How God is working in your life? _____

How are you growing? Make a list of things you are learning, and how you have grown over the past year.

If someone asked you to share your testimony, what would you say? _____