

Ready for Growth Assessment

Leaders should evaluate their performance as individuals, and look for areas in which they can improve. This assessment will help your students understand how ready they are for growth. Have your students talk through their results and come up with a few measurable ways in which they can develop in this area.

Effective leaders reflect on their readiness and willingness to grow in character and leadership. Try to maintain an objective and impartial perspective as you consider your readiness to grow.

Circle your answers

LowHigh

Attitude	It is important to me to become more like God in my thoughts and actions.	1	2	3	4	5	6
	I take my relationship with God seriously, and I dedicate time and energy to the relationship.	1	2	3	4	5	6
Accountability	I seek feedback from others on matters of character.	1	2	3	4	5	6
	I am regularly accountable to a mentor.	1	2	3	4	5	6
Awareness	I know what my strengths are in the area of character.	1	2	3	4	5	6
	I know what areas of my character need further development.	1	2	3	4	5	6
Overall Readiness for Growth		1	2	3	4	5	6

In what areas from the assessment above do I need the most improvement?

What steps can I take in those areas to improve my readiness and willingness to grow?