GRAVITATE

Are you moving toward God or drifting away from Him?

There are things and people in this world that we instinctively gravitate toward, factors that draw us in. But our natural desires draw us away, causing us to drift in a direction we shouldn't go. We all have sinful desires, but God desires to rescue his children. If we want to gravitate to the path that leads to life (Matt. 7:13–14), our desires must change, which means our hearts must change. And only God can change a heart (Ezekiel 36:26). When we repent and turn to Jesus in faith, we begin to surrender our desires to God and live in such a way that others will notice. This study will dig into human nature, God's grace, and the importance of following Jesus daily.

The theme verse is from James 4:8: "Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you." That's what this DNow event is all about: asking whether you're gravitating toward God or away from him.

SMALL GROUP OVERVIEW

Small Group Session 1

- Session Title: The Natural Draw of Sin
- Main Scripture Passages: James 1:14–15; Galatians 5:19–21; Romans 8:13
- Session Overview: The goal of this session is to help you and your students reflect on their own desires and recognize which desires are sinful and which ones are pleasing to God. They'll also have a chance to think through where their sinful desires will take them if they don't take action. They'll prayerfully consider which desires they can "crucify" and turn to follow God's way completely and freely.

Small Group Session 2

- Session Title: God Draws Us In
- Main Scripture Passages: Philippians 2:5–8; 1 Corinthians 2:14; Matthew 16:13–17
- Session Overview: The goal of this session is to help you and your students marvel at what Jesus gave up in order to be with us and give us a chance to respond to his love and offer of salvation. They will also be invited to think about how to respond to God's desire to be with us and come near to us.

Small Group Session 3

- Session Title: Drawing Near to God
- Main Scripture Passages: John 15:7–11; Psalm 1:1–2; Psalm 84:1–2, 10
- Session Overview: The goal of this session is to help you and your students explore how to gravitate toward God. It seems like an abstract concept at first, but the Bible has practical advice for us on how to stay close to him. Students will discuss what they think gravitating toward God might look like as well as how they have stayed close to God practically in the past and explore what the Bible says about gravitating toward Jesus in John 15. The discussion should help students identify practical ways they can draw close to the Lord and stay there and how to make those moment-by-moment decisions to obey his Word out of love for him.

GRAVITATE

Small Group Session 4

- Session Title: Drawing Others to God
- Main Scripture Passages: Matthew 28:18–20; 1 Corinthians 2:1–5; Matthew 5:43–44
- Session Overview: The goal of this session is to help you and your students brainstorm practical ways to be salt and light in your own spheres of influence and how those good works can present others with an opportunity to gravitate toward God and bring him glory. Guide students in discussion about how they can start spiritual conversations, love others well, obey Jesus, etc. Students will have a chance to evaluate their strengths and where God might have them specifically for a purpose to bring him glory and allow others to see Christ in us.

HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE

GOAL:

The goal of this lesson is twofold:

1. *This small group lesson is designed to help you and your students reflect on their own desires and recognize which desires are sinful and which ones are pleasing to God. 2. It is also designed to make it easy for you to facilitate and teach students. That is why the Small Group Leader Guide is packed with easy-to-use instructions, timeframes, and questions that promote thinking and draw out real responses.

SMALL GROUP SESSION ONE: THE NATURAL DRAW OF SIN

THE FIRST MEETING

Since this is the first small group meeting for this event, take the time to lay the foundation for the whole event.

- If your students don't know each other, cover introductions and consider an icebreaker (see leadertreks.org/freebies for several icebreaker and team-building activities).
- Make sure to cover the schedule and ground rules for the event, especially if you are staying at a host home.
- Tell students why you are here. You are probably sacrificing some time and comfort to be a small group leader and, chances are, it's worth it! Let students know why you care so much about them and why you want to invest in them to help them grow. Tell students why you think they're great and why it's worth it for you to be a small group leader this weekend!

LARGE GROUP TALK REVIEW

Take a minute to review what students just learned in the Large Group Talk. Have them pull out their notes, and ask them to share what their answers were for the two questions found on page 4 of the Student Book (see below). Consider having students share their answers with a partner, and then ask for two or three volunteers who might want to share with the whole group.

Question 1: How do your sinful desires drag you away from Jesus?

Question 2: What are some practical ways you have fought sinful desires in the past?

A SECOND LOOK

Read this story together and answer the following questions, found on page 6 of the Student Book.

A song called "More Like Jesus" highlights the path our desires can lead us down. The writer describes himself as "lost," "enslaved," and "bound to [his] desires."<sup>1</sup> There is no such thing as freedom when we pursue our own way and live for ourselves instead of living for God and in his way. The writer then prays for God to continue changing him into the image of Jesus. Read the lyrics below and consider listening to the song as a group.

VERSE 1

I've been told to live my own truth
Do whatever makes me feel good
Get rid of boundaries the rules are stifling
Chase good feelings soon we'll be gone

PRE-CHORUS 1

But I found myself
More lost than ever
Enslaved and bound to my desires
And that's not freedom

CHORUS

Holy Spirit make me more like Jesus
Every day a little more like Jesus
Crucify my flesh with Yours
That my new life might be secured
Everything I do
Done so I can honor You
Resurrect me sanctify me
Make me into Your image

Discuss

- What motivates your everyday decisions?
- How do your desires line up with God's Word?
- It takes faith to believe that God's ways are better than our own. On a scale of 1-5 (5 being the most), how much do you truly believe and trust that God's way of living leads to a more satisfying life than your way?

A LITTLE DEEPER

Unfortunately, our desires are inherently sinful. But the good news is that we can repent and turn to Jesus for cleansing. Then, the Holy Spirit helps us fight our "fleshly" desires while producing the fruit of the Spirit in us. Once we belong to Christ, we are declared right with God, and, over time, God makes us more like Jesus.

Read each Bible passage and answer the questions, found in the Student Book on pages 7 and 8:

JAMES 1:14-15

"But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death."

Discuss

- Is being tempted a sin? Why or why not?
- What will happen if we don't fight against our sinful desires?
- What is our only hope of victory and lasting change (see Ezekiel 36:26-27)?

Say Something Like: Our desires can lead to death if we don't turn to Jesus in repentance and salvation. He is the only one who can help us! Don't fall for believing something other than God's ways are good for us. Following our deceitful hearts is not the way to life.

GALATIANS 5:19-21

"Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit."

Discuss

- What is the most startling difference you see between the two lists ("works of the flesh" and "fruit of the Spirit")?
- Which list best describes you? Why?
- According to this passage, whose "flesh with its passions and desires" has been crucified?

Say Something Like: In this passage, clear “acts of the flesh” are contrasted with the fruit of the Spirit. Once we are children of God, we have the Spirit, but we still have a responsibility to keep in step with the Spirit, meaning fighting off our sinful passions and desires and diligently following God. When we do, we will produce more fruit of the Spirit.

ROMANS 8:13

“For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.”

Discuss

- Which desires do you need help fighting today?
- What kinds of help are available to you?
- What kind of death and life is this verse talking about?

Say Something Like: Living by the flesh (living in unrepentant sin) will lead us to death. But if we repent of our sin and turn to Jesus, we will be able to live by the Spirit! For those who live by the Spirit, we will have the Spirit to help us fight the desires that oppose God’s ways.

LIVE IT OUT: Junk Food vs. Veggies

What you’ll need: A table with an assortment of vegetables and junk food for the students.

Say Something Like: Without repentance and faith in God, we are stuck in our sinful nature, unable to make choices that please God. We will always gravitate toward fulfilling our sinful desires because we have no other choice—we’re slaves to sin! But, when we repent of our sin and turn in faith to Jesus, we are forgiven of all our sin, made right with God, and given the Holy Spirit to help us fight our sinful desires. We are no longer slaves to sin but free in Christ! We are free to choose what is right. Our natural desire to sin will still be a struggle at times, but we have the power of the Holy Spirit to fight off our sinful desires. As we keep maturing in our faith and practice fighting our sinful desires, making choices that please God will become easier and easier.

Instructions

1. Set out a table with an assortment of vegetables and junk food for the students and invite them to fill a plate with what they’d like to eat. Provide foods like broccoli, carrots, cucumber, water bottles, etc., as well as chips, doughnuts, candy, soda, etc.
2. Say something like: Before we start eating our snacks, let’s discuss what foods we gravitated toward. Most of us probably filled our plates with junk food, right?
3. Have the students go around and briefly share what they chose to eat (Mostly veggies? Mostly junk food?)
4. Say something like: To be clear, our choices of food today do not indicate where we are spiritually. But it’s a helpful illustration showing what we crave or gravitate toward and the power our desires have over us. For those who are Christ-followers, we have the Holy Spirit in us! Sometimes, it may be a struggle to say no to our selfish and sinful desires, but we can say no with the Holy Spirit’s help.

Debrief

- What sinful desires do students your age often struggle with?
- Like junk food negatively affects our bodies, how does consistently following sinful desires negatively affect our hearts and minds?
- How does it make you feel to know that Christ-followers still have sinful desires but also have the power, with the Holy Spirit's help, to say no and to choose what is good?

APPLY IT

What sinful desires trip you up the most? How can you tap into the Holy Spirit's help, as well as the help from other believers, to fight back against those reoccurring sinful desires?

Be specific:

What are you going to do?

When are you going to do it?

Is there someone who can keep you accountable?

Leader's Note: Whenever students make applications, challenge them to be specific. It's one thing to say, "I'm going to trust God more." The truth is, our students won't really know if they did this, or if they grew in trust over the week. It's another thing to say, "Every morning this week before I eat breakfast, I'm going to tell God that today is his and that I trust him, and I'm going to ask him to give me the strength to replace worries with trust." Challenge your students to answer the questions under the "Be Specific" section. You can even have them pair up, share their applications, and ask for accountability from their partner.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Schedule: Let students know what's happening next in the schedule and what they need to do or bring with them.

Student Devotional: The Student Book contains a short devotional for students to do on their own. Remember to point this out to students and let them know if and when this fits into the schedule of the weekend. The devotional that corresponds with this lesson is found on page 35.

WELCOME TO GRAVITATE

Are you moving toward God or drifting away from Him?

In this study, you will discover that each of us has sinful desires, but God desires to rescue his children. If you repent and turn to Jesus in faith, you'll begin to surrender your desires to God and live in such a way that others will notice. The four lessons include:

1. Our Desires
2. God's Desire
3. Deciding to Move
4. Leading Others

This study will dig into human nature, God's grace, and the importance of following Jesus daily. You'll have a chance to evaluate what direction you're gravitating—toward God or away from him—and what steps to take next.

Here are some things you need to know as you go through this study:

- 1. God wants to connect with you. In fact, he's looking forward to it. But how ready are you to connect with him? As you go in and out of the sessions and devotional times, make sure you are willing to listen to him and learn from him. He promises that he will come near to you if you come near to him (James 4:8). Try it!
- 2. What you put into this study is what you'll get out of it. There are people all around you who have spent a lot of time praying for you and getting ready to invest in you. You'll probably meet some new people, hear some new speakers, and get a chance to spend some quality time with God and with friends. Take advantage of it! Ask hard questions. Commit to being authentic and honest. God wants to use this time and these people in your life.

SESSION 1

INTRO

THE NATURAL DRAW OF SIN

Because of Adam and Eve's disobedience at the beginning of humanity, everyone has inherited a sinful heart and sinful desires. We naturally gravitate toward things that seem to be right at the time, but when we fulfill our sinful desires, it eventually leads to death and away from Jesus. We forget all the ways God has been faithful and gracious to us in the past, and we hesitate to believe that God's ways are better than our ways.

LARGE GROUP

SESSION 1: THE NATURAL DRAW OF SIN

These two pages are designed so you can take note of anything that stands out to you and that you think is worth remembering during the large group talk. This talk will set the stage for the rest of the session. Consider writing down main points, quotes, Bible verses, and any questions that pop into your head.

How do your sinful desires drag you away from Jesus?

What are some practical ways you have fought sinful desires in the past?
