

Mission Trip Team – Trip Coordinator

Responsible to: Director of Mission Trips

This position is open for remote working.

LeaderTreks (LT) is seeking passionate team members for our Mission Trip program focused on short-term student mission trips. Experience in Christian ministry is valuable, and having served in student missions is even better. This role involves overseeing the LeaderTreks Student Mission Trip Program, including site setup, programming, and administrative support. We have some flexibility in this position, so if you are enthusiastic about student missions, please send us your resume. We would love to speak with you!

Accountabilities: The Mission Trip Coordinator ensures that all LeaderTreks student mission trips are run with excellence and works to ensure high partner satisfaction. The Mission Trip Coordinator will work closely with the sales team to understand partners expectations. This position requires strong administrative skills and this position requires travel in the spring and summer months. (If you can't be away from home for a few weeks at a time, this will not be a good position for you).

Job Summary: The Mission Trip Coordinator will manage all systems related the trip program, safety, quality control, finances, host partnerships, and all logistics. The Mission Trip Coordinator will work collaboratively with the LT management team on new program development. Additionally, the Mission Trip Coordinator will be a team member on the management team and will work to develop a strong, trusting relationship with the other team members. Every team member of the management team understands that we must work together to the reach of the goals of LT.

Trip Site Management

- Logistics Management: Coordinate all trip logistics (travel details, schedules, etc.) of the summer trips.
- Host (Missionary) Partnerships: Know all the ins-and-outs of LeaderTreks sites and our host partnerships. Manage these relationships ensuring that the LeaderTreks program can be effective in each location. This may also include assisting in the setup of new site locations.

Trip Program Management

- Quality Control: LeaderTreks has a proven leadership development philosophy and program. The top priority of the Mission Trip Coordinator is to ensure that every staff member runs this program with excellence on every trip.
- Financial Oversight: Manage trip and training funds with excellence, making sure budgets are created and followed correctly.
- Safety & Risk Management: Ensure that safety is a top priority at LeaderTreks and eliminate unnecessary risk.
- Solve Problems: Be the “first responder” to solve trip/training problems—especially while trips are being run.
- Travel: The Mission Trip Coordinator will plan on traveling for training and site visits.

Fulfill all requirements of LeaderTreks Staff which are outlined in the LeaderTreks Staff Training Manual and staff handbook including but not limited to:

- LeaderTreks policy and procedures, Staff Values, Trip Policy and Standard of Conduct
- Following LeaderTreks documentation
- Daily office communication including phone messages, emails, and inter-office memos.
- Assisting with accounting procedures
